

Cydelic
by Choryin

Born in Hong Kong, Choryin credits the city and their street style as influential in his collection. After moving to Canada, Choryin excelled as a student, garnering the Textile Design Award as well as the Fashion Arts Award while attending the Fashion Arts program at Seneca College. Following graduation in 2010, Choryin joined the Seven Continents atelier while expanding his role as a design consultant.

LOVAS

WESLEY BADANJAK

LOVAS Wesley Badanjak provides every woman the choice to feel exceptional. Founded in 2008, the focus of LOVAS Wesley Badanjak is on classic tailoring and precise finishing in modern silhouettes, creating a sophisticated wardrobe. The looks are fashion forward and modern, yet exceptionally wearable. Badanjak's detailed construction in luxurious fabrics provides a distinct point-of-view in the fashion marketplace. Badanjak's inspiration varies from season to season, yet he is always drawn to his love of history, music and his Croatian heritage. The looks infuse these common threads into contemporary fashions of the highest quality for today's woman.

VAWK

VAWK is a Canadian luxury brand that has been met with fanfare and acclaim. Reputed for its quality and exclusiveness, it designs, produces and distributes luxury goods for sophisticated and discerning women, including ready-to-wear, handbags and accessories. Launched in 2004 by Sunny Fong, the label has developed distinction for its strong and feminine silhouettes and masterful tailoring. In 2009, entrepreneur Ben Barry joined VAWK as a partner to help develop the firm as the leading Canadian luxury brand and implement a global strategy.

